

Bio

Having vigorously kicked off his solo project in early 2002, Scott Celani and his supporting players are hitting venues all over the U.S. At a typical show, audience members are treated to Celani's well-crafted, melodic pop songs. Celani presents his music with a full band or in acoustic format. Either way, Celani offers a powerhouse of rhythm and melody. Throughout his music career, Scott has performed live all over the U.S. and Canada, and his music has been played or is being played on radio stations all over North America. Scott has shared the stage with the likes of The Goo Goo Dolls, Ben Folds, Hootie & The Blowfish, REO Speedwagon, Our Lady Peace, Vertical Horizon, Jon Secada, Jimmy Eat World, Sum 41, Good Charlotte, The Guess Who, Eddie Money, Tom Cochrane, The Marshall Tucker Band, Willy Nile, Sam Roberts and The Clarks.

For his first 3 releases, "Them Apples" (2002), "Saturday" (2004) and "Wired for Nostalgia" (2006), Celani teamed up with acclaimed Toronto record producer Brent Bodrug of The B-Group Music (Alanis Morissette, Oscar Peterson, Jacksoul, Carlos Morgan). All 3 records were released to packed houses in Scott's home town of Buffalo, NY. Scott and his band have spent 2003 - 2007 touring the U.S. in support of all 3 releases. In addition to receiving rave reviews, the first 3 studio efforts have garnered extensive commercial radio play as well as television and film placement. The song placement list includes "Discs", a highly publicized television pilot currently being considered for feature film release in Hollywood. By the way, Scott was also cast in the lead role (clips available at www.myspace.com/discsshow).

And now for the present. Celani and crew have decided to take the "home grown" approach to the newest studio project. Teaming up with co-producer, engineer and fellow band mate Matt Young, Celani is in the process of recording a new batch of songs that reflect a new level of maturity in both composition and performance from an experienced and road-tested singer-songwriter and a killer band. Celani and company released 2 "teaser" songs in the summer of 2008, with the rest of the EP due out in 2009. You can hear the 2 new songs right now at www.myspace.com/scottcelanimusic. Stay tuned!
