

Bio

Jeremy Schachter is a comedian and actor originally from Rochester, NY where at a very young age he landed a job as a waiter at the Comix Cafe, Rochester's only comedy club. With some coaxing from other employees, Jeremy gave standup a try, and it was only a few months until he became the club's youngest house MC.

For the past several years Jeremy has resided in New York City where he attended the School for Film and Television on scholarship, as well as Hunter College where he studied Political Science and Theater. While in school, Jeremy continued to do comedy at night. Immediately following Hunter College, Jeremy was five years into the game and was being noticed by comedy clubs in the city and around the country. Within four months of finishing school, Jeremy was a full-time comic performing at colleges and clubs around the country.

Jeremy has made appearances on Comedy Central's Live at Gotham, Discovery Channel's Cash Cab & You Spoof Discovery, Spike TV's Casino Cinema, AMC's Date Night, and Animal Planet's The A List. Jeremy also makes regular appearances on Court TV's Star Jones as Star's "special correspondent." Not limited to just the states Jeremy has also been seen overseas on Dutch TV's The Comedy Factory. Jeremy made his film debut earlier this year in the upcoming thriller Manslaughter by executive producer Freddie Prinze Jr.

In addition to Film & TV appearances Jeremy does hundreds of live shows a year and can be heard weekly over his internet podcast The Schachter Factor. He also gets together with his sketch group Perv Griffin to shoot silly videos and do live shows once or twice a month in New York.
