

Bio

Saucy Monkey began in 2001 when band members Annmarie Cullen and Cynthia Catania met in the Los Angeles club scene. Since that time, the band has released two albums, Celebrity Trash and Turbulence. Although the spotlight is often on the girls, Saucy Monkey also rocks on the foundation of fellow musicians Steve Giles and Karen Teperberg, who often join the girls on tour. The unique singer-songwriter style of this band's music is fueled by indie-spirited guitar playing coupled with a driving rhythm section.

Saucy Monkey has toured the United States with artists such as The B-52's, Pink, and The Black Eyed Peas.
