Bring Michael
Dean Ester's
Campus Comedy
to your campus!

Here's what Programmers have to say about Michael:

"He was very funny, with great crowd interaction, and was very friendly and accommodating toward staff and organizers. His humor is very well oriented toward a college audience and I give him the highest recommendation."
Comedy Chair-University of Connecticut

"He was extremely nice and very funny. His comedy was like a cross between Robin Williams and Buzz Sutherland, only better. I would highly recommend him to any school that's interested in booking great comedy." Special Events Coordinator, Western Carolina University, NC

"Mike is always awesome, both on stage and off." J.S. Bragg, Marshall University, Huntington, WV

"Had us laughing 'til our sides hurt. He has so much energy." Bill Skeat, Concord College, Athens, GA

"He's our top entertainer of the year, and both he and Scott are true professionals." Director of Orientation, Alfred University, Alfred, NY, 8/30/03

"He was the perfect artist to have during our orientation week activities." Asst. DSA, Texas A& M -Kingsville, Kingsville, TX

"We would like to thank Michael for his hilarious performance at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. We all enjoyed the show and only heard positive remarks about him from our fellow peers. The turn out was good and it was nice to see him solicit a high degree of crowd participation."
Campus Activities Board, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

"The show went very well! We had a really good turnout! I will definitely keep him in mind for future programs." Jen Haworth, Programming Director, Concordia University - St. Paul, MN

Ode To The Campus Programming Board

By Michael Dean Ester

We line up the dates and do the publicity for every imaginable student activity. We unlock the doors and set up the stages and it's never about money or minimum wages.

We work hard because we know what our campus deserves. Stuff to do when books and classes get on our nerves. Our college supports the fine work that we do. You should see the office they gave us - no windows, no view.

It's hard to know what our school's really thinking. They keep raising tuition, but our budget keeps shrinking.

We book carnivals, casino nights, concerts, and events - shows in the student center and functions in tents. We bring home music and comedy and lectures, too, And still people bitch that there's "nothing to do."

But the truth of our job at the end of the day is that it's not about praise and it's not about pay.

We add to the quality of life at our schools. The events that we program can be great learning tools. The college experience goes on well after class. And campus life with no programs would be a pain in the - butt.

Imagine if college were all about studies... No events, arts, or culture to experience with your buddies. Imagine if the programming board weren't here... college would be high school - just with tuition and beer.

So when students see someone on the programming board, they should thank God we're working or they would really be bored.

And the best way people can support what we do - is SHOW UP at our events. Bring a friend, hey, bring two.

Professors do it for tenure, administrators for prudence. But we bring this campus to life - for the good of ALL the students!!
